*It was intended to use the word forefathers, as her: torere, in such connections, but as there have arisen some doubts about the matter as to whether it was our forefathers or foreigners who bequeathed as the heritage, and as the three first and the three last letters in both words are the same, we will just leave it as we wrote it at first.—
We don't think it worth while to be making such nice dis-gives one of the Union and American's corres-

How they hate the Truth. In the Nashville Union of the 27th ult., we find published a letter purporting to be written from the First Congressional District, and signed "East Tennessee." Its spirit is in perfect keeping with the tactics of the anti-American or Sag Nichts party. The writer says that he "regards Johnson as much | stronger now than he was in the last race"-he certainly has a greater regard for Johnson than he has for the truth when he makes this assertion. Johnson will not get near the vote he got two years July.

ago; and further, he will not receive the votes of hundreds now that he received the last race. He attributes the increase for Johnson to the circulation of Dr. Anderson's speeches-now, this ina crease is only imaginary with the correspondent of the Union; he would have told the truth had he said that the decrease in Johnson's vote was attributed to Dr. A's speech, but the truth did not snit his purpose. He throws out some insinuations as to Dr. A's standing whilst a resident of this county (Jefferson.) Four short months ago none would have defended the private and political character of the Doctor in East Tunnessee, with greater zeal than these same men who now heap abuse upon his head. We assert what we know to be the fact, that Dr. Anderson's speech has done Gentry great service here, and the great desire expressed by the correspondent of the Union for more copies of the Doctor's speech, is a mere sham, and designed not for the people of East Tennessee to read, but to deceive the people of Middle and West Tennessee as to the truth of the effect of that speech. He further says that if Dr. A. "were a cand date [in this county | he could not get 25 votes." The faisity of this assertion is too plain to need further notice.

All here know it to be basely untrue. These, fellow-citizens of Jefferson county, are some of the means used by the sycophants of foreigners and the devotees of pepery in this State to secure the election of Johnson. They manufacture falsehoods here and send them to Middle and West Tennessee, thinking that it will not be found out by you, until it has had its desired effect, and the elec- gratified to visit, but it is impo tion is over. Such trickery deserves the contempt of all bonest men.

IMMENSE EXCITEMENT.-The population in the neighborhood of the wire bridge were thrown into a dreadful excitement yesterday evening by the firing of a pistol by a woman N. & C. R. R.-HOURS OF DEPARTURE.-The Express -a modern Joan of Arc. The alarm bell was tapped, and the crowd rushed to and fro in intense bewilderment. The denoument was rather more ridiculous than interesting. It appeared that Mr. Fuller, proprietor of a gymnasium, had a misunderstanding with Mr. Hestor, in his own house on Front street, and a personal encounter resulted. Some severe blows passed, but it did not appear which got the better of the fight. Fuller retreated, however, and as he passed out Mrs. Hestor attempted to make a point by firing a pistol at him. The ball fell short of its mark, and Mr. Fuller survived long enough to go before the Recorder and pay a fine of $10 and costs for disorderly

G. C. Torbett. This Johnsonian Democrat and co-editor of the Nashville Union is a candidate for Congress in this District in opposition to Gen. Zollicoffer, the American candidate. As he is not the nominee of a Convention, we presume he is running for the purand Six Mile Island. Between this city and Cairo pose of retrieving the fallen fortunes of the democratic party. In order that our readers may know who Mr. Torbett is, we will give them a few facts in his history.

Our readers will remember that two years ago the Nashville Union falsely charged Gen. Zollicoffer with voting for the odious ca. sa. law. He vindicated hemself, and showed that he voted for a very different law. But in Mr. Torbett we have a real live ca. sa man. He was a member of the Tennessee House of Representatives in 1842-and at the called session in 1842, (28th Oct) the "bill to abolish imprisonment for debt" was taken up and read a third time and passed. Mr. Torbett voting NAY! He was in the Senate at the session of 1843-4 .-A bill was introduced to repeal this repealing act .-This bill was variously amended, but on the 25th of Nov., 1843, Mr. Ross offered an amendment which rendered it harmless-that is his amendment provided that if the debtor has committed no fraud he shall be discharged from custody-and permitting im, as soon as arrested, to go before a justice of the peace and state on oath that he has nothing more than the law allows him, and secure his discharge forthwith. (See pages 800 and 801 of the journal). Against this amendment of Ross Torbett voted, on the 28th Nov. (See p. 404). But the amendment was adopted, and the next day the question being on the amendment proposed by the drawn to a secret corner for the express purpose judiciary committee, as amended by Mr. Ross, Torof resolving myself into a committee of the whole on bett voted against that. He finally voted against behalf of the sovereign people of old Lincoln, and setting forth our platform of principles to the United Torbett is a real ca. sa. man, just turned up! Now States of America and "the rest of mankind." It is not astonishing that a man who would be willing to tear in favor of foreigners who may visit our country. a fellow-man from the embraces of his family and 2d. We owe our gratitude to foreigners for the confine him in prison, for the misfortune of being freedom we this day enjoy, because they gained it in debt, should oppose the American movement of the age. It is a lamentable truth that, with few exceptions, every article of food we cat, every article of drink we imbibe, is more or less admiterated; and in nothing has adulteration been practiced to such an extent as in spiritous, rinous and fermented by one. So much so, in fact, that it is impossible to procure pure liquors and wines unless obtained divect from a bone full importer, of known reputation, and well established foreign connections.

It is owing to the corrosive, luftammatery and poisonous properties of the liquors sold generally in this country, that disgraceful, beastful intoxication is so frequent, that the Legislatures of several of the States have taken the matter in hand, and prohibited the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors as common beverages. liquors as common beverages.

Were all liquors sold pure and unadulterafed, we should need no Maine Law, and but few restrictions on their sale.
